

Thank you for deciding to become a Sales Agent for the Aussie Travel Saver. Below is a brief about our product.

Essentially, our product is a discount card available only to international visitors to Australia.

We have currently in excess of 2,000 discount outlets nationwide ranging from, travel insurance, car rental, accommodation, restaurants, tours, activities, foreign money conversion, retail clothing, theme parks and the list goes on, the discounts offered range from 10% to 50%.

The card is valid for 12 months and is priced at $98 AUD. Our product has received overwhelming support from businesses throughout Australia, as well as the support of both the Federal Government and Tourism Australia.

The effect of encouraging the customer to incorporate your unique agent code is to obtain a discount on our purchase price of $98, but more importantly identify you as the introductory selling agent for commission purposes, should the sale be made at a later date by way of the client buying direct online.

You will not be required undertake any bookings, of tours, activities, accommodation etc, just make available the promotional material relating to our product within your business.

Our website www.aussietravel saver.com.au fully details our product.

If you need any clarification regarding this, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regard
